Explore Cannes, Antibes, Eze, and Monaco: A Journey Through Glamour, Art, and Heritage
Discover CANNES, strolling along the renowned Croisette boulevard lined with iconic palaces—the Carlton, Majestic, and Martinez—that host the stars during the famed Film Festival. Walk up the world-famous red carpet on the steps of the Palais des Festivals for a touch of cinematic glamour.
Continue to ANTIBES, where historic ramparts guard the charming old town, once fortified against invasions. This seaside gem also boasts a rich artistic heritage thanks to Picasso, who spent part of his life here, and offers stunning views of the Cap d'Antibes peninsula, nestled between Antibes and Juan-les-Pins.
Head to Eze, a medieval village perched high above the Mediterranean. Climb its cobbled streets to the exotic garden with castle ruins at the top, offering breathtaking views. Before departing, visit the renowned Fragonard perfume factory for a look at the French art of fragrance.

Finally, travel to the Principality of MONACO. In the old town, "Le Rocher," visit the Prince's Palace, the neo-Romanesque Cathedral where Princess Grace rests, and the famed Oceanographic Museum. Enjoy Monte Carlo's luxury boutiques, casinos, and a thrilling drive along the Formula 1 Grand Prix circuit.

Grasse, Gourdon, Tourrettes-sur-Loup & Wine Tasting
Embark on a journey into the countryside, starting in Grasse, a city renowned for its historical leather production that transformed over the centuries into the world capital of perfume. Explore the charming old town and visit the famous Fragonard perfume factory, where you'll enjoy a guided tour to learn about the art of fragrance creation.
Next, head to Gourdon, known as the "Eagle's Nest." You'll ascend to an impressive peak of 760 meters, where breathtaking views of the Côte d'Azur await. Stroll through the village, admiring the beautifully restored houses and charming craft shops. Don't miss the castle, originally built in the thirteenth century and later restored, showcasing collections of ancient arms, seventeenth-century furniture, Aubusson tapestries, and exquisite sculptures, all set within stunning gardens designed by Le Nôtre.
Continue your journey to Tourrettes-sur-Loup, a picturesque medieval village perched on a rocky hilltop and known as the "City of Violets." Wander through its narrow stone streets lined with artisan shops, galleries, and quaint cafés. Soak in the authentic atmosphere of Provence and take some free time for lunch in one of the local restaurants offering stunning views and regional cuisine.
On your return journey, visit a winery nestled in the heart of the Bellet vineyard above Nice. Enjoy spectacular views of the sea and rolling hills covered in vines, and indulge in a tasting of local wines that capture the essence of the region.
This excursion promises to create unforgettable memories and offers a unique perspective on the enchanting French Riviera.
Inclusions : - Fragonard Perfume Factory visit & Wine tasting.
